

The grand jury for the January term of the city court is ordered for the 14th inst.

The police cases yesterday were of an insignificant character, and hardly worth recording.

An Illinois company advertised itself as "free of postage in Johnson county." It is free of sense anywhere.

An Indiana paper publishes "A List of Wonders." It forget to list the greatest of wonders—how it managed to exist.

Kate Morris was yesterday sent to the workhouse in default of $50 bail, for drunkenness. "When lovely woman gets too jolly," etc., as an old Smith says.

Nick Miller, accused of appropriating a revolver of Ed. Hardin, was discharged.

Speaking of revolvers, is a man guilty of horse theft if he steals a Colt?

BATTLE OF NEW ORLEANS.—Do our military companies intend celebrating this glorious anniversary? If so it will be an imposing parade. The occasion is worthy of the highest recognition.

Dickens refuses to retract any of the slanders on the American people, published in his "American Notes." If he don't retract and retract, when he dies he will go to the—Dickens.

"The United Congress of Methodist Ministers" will meet at Wesley Chapel in New Albany to-day at ten o'clock a. m. Rev. Mr.

Brown, of Louisville, will preach the opening sermon. The public are invited to attend.

The Chicago Democrat is informed that forty-three physicians have left that city within the past year, for other and more promising fields of labor. However, there are enough doctors left to kill and plant all the rest of the inhabitants.

COAL UP.—We understand that Pittsburg coal will be raised in price this morning 14 cents per bushel, which leaves the price at 14 cents. The reason urged for this, is that owing to the ice the coal has to be wheeled from the boats to the cars, costing the difference between 12 and 14 cents.

NEW EXPRESS COMPANY.—James Glover and

A. H. Kelt, formerly of Adams Express, propose to do a general express and commission business, and will have reliable messengers on the Elgin and Kentucky, and Tennessee and Alabama, and Southern Railroad lines, who will have franchises for the deposit of valuable packages. The style of the concern will be the Southern Express Company.

ISORATORY WASTES.—Of little girl, 11 years of age, by the name of Lucy Armstrong, who left her home on Christmas day, since which time she has not been seen or heard from. She has light hair and blue eyes, and had on a dark dress, red stockings, and blue black shoes, and wore a white wool hood with a blue border. She has very few acquaintances, having lived in the city but six months. Any information concerning her whereabouts can be left at the police court.

THEATRE.—The performances of last night were quite creditable. Mr. Elmore's Tripoli was unusually excellent, even for him. Miss Fanny made a graceful and pleasing Malvane, and Mrs. Farren played Peg Woffington with spirit and energy. To-night the comedy which was referred on yesterday is to be repeated, doubtless with more care. We expect for these really excellent actresses some tribute to their acknowledged merit. They deserve support from the community for many reasons, and we sincerely hope it will not be withheld to-night.

AN OLD PROVERB.—"Charity covers a multitude of sins." It is true, so far as rich sinners are concerned, but false in the main, as regards poor folk. However that may be, charity about these times might be better employed than in covering sins, by buying herself in clothing the indigent, ministering to the needs of the poor, and so forth. We are by those who have opportunities for judging, that there is a vast amount of actual suffering at present in Louisville. Is the hint obvious?

Who will put charity about her proper duty?

the relief of the poor?
